Democratic Frauds Increase in Denver

Deeper the Courts Dig Into the Matter, the Worse for the Ward Heelers,

DENVER. Dec. 21.-The report presented to the Supreme court today by the handwriting experts who examined the ballots in the box from precinct 2, ward 4 of this city, showed that of 256 votes 144 were apparently frauduient. One hundred and forty ballots with the Democratic heading were reported to have been written by five persons, one of whom had written 119. Four ballots with the Republican heading had been written by two persons. There were in the box 177 Democratic and 23 Republican ballots which appeared to be rgenlar.

After receiving the report the court proceeded to hear from further testimony on the contempt charges against Isaac Goldman and Edward Sweeney, election judges at this polling place.

M. M. Hamma, Republican expert, testi-M. M. Hamma, Republican expert, testified to his belief that on closer examination at least 100 of the ballots which appeared to be regular would prove to be fraudulent. George H. King, Democratic expert also testified that there were probably some fraudulent yotes which had not been detected in the hurried examination of the ballots.

Sweeney and Goldman, who conducted their own defense, disclaimed knowledge of the fraudulent ballots, and denied that they had wilfully violated the court's orders. Both threw themselves on the mercy of the court. Sweeney said his wife was dead and he wished to take her remains to Chicago. Chief Justice Gabert announced that the case would be taken under consideration, and ordered the defendants to report in court Saturday.

the defendants to report in court Saturday.

Each of the twenty-three men new serving sentences in jail for contempt of court has filed af petition for a rehearing and alleviation of sentence. The petitions are identical and the grounds upon which they are based are solely technical, the principal one being a challenge of the right of the Supreme court to assume jurisdiction of the election.

Patrick Higgins and William F. Daly were arrested today on warrants issued by the court charging contempt. The specific contempt alleged is that of rendering assistance to persons said to have been engaged in the work of repeating.

One Belonging to Mrs. Chadwick and Supposed to Contain Valuables. CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 21.-Still another satchel, one thought by Receiver Loeser to contain valuables belonging to Mrs. Chadwick, was today found to be missing. This developed in an ex-amination of Mrs. Mary Londraville, Mrs. Chadwick's former housekeeper held before Referee in Bankruptcy Remington. The discovery is in addition to the missing trunk and grip that disappeared from the Holland house in New York the day before Mrs. Chadwick was ar-the day before Mrs. Chadwick was arrested.

When the bearing was resumed in the bankruptcy court in the afternoon Mr. Pine was present. He admitted that he secured the satchel and kept it until Emil Hoover. Mrs. Chadwick's son, called for it last Sunday night. Emil told him that his mothers atterney, J. P. Dawley, wanted it. He said he was not curlous as to what the satchel contained, but thought there were papers in it. Receiver Loceser said he would ask the attorney to tell the contents of the satchel.

The hearing was then continued until Friday morning. Friday morning.

Kroonland Struck by Big Tidal Wave

Tons of Salt Water Sent Tumbling Over the Decks of the

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.-After a stormy voyage, during which she was struck by a tidal wave, the Red Star line steamship Kroonland arrived today from Ant-ship Kroonland arrived today from Antwerp.

The voyage was the worst the vessel has ever experienced. There was nothing but bad weather from the time she left Antwerp, on December 19, until she was almost in port. On the second day out a stewarders went insane.

On the morning of December 12, while the vessel was making fair time in a strong northwest gale, she was struck by a tidal wave, which brought her to a standstill and sent tons of water tumbling over her decks. Pierroto, a Belgian cabin passenger, was standing under shelter and close up to the deckhouse antidships. He was picked up and was thrown across the deck. When rescued it was found his left leg had been broken in two places.

Officers of the Kroonland say that when the wave struck the vessel the water dashed higher than her funcels and swept the hurricane deck. Fritz Sortlandy, lookout, was thrown out of the crow's nest and fell a distance of forty feet, but sustained no injury except a badly bruised side.

SMOOT'S SKY IS LOWERING

Little Hopes for His Retention.

Will Make a Defense, but Has Lost Confidence.

Another Administration Newspaper Takes Strong Stand Against the Apostle.

By A. F. Philips.

Special to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.-Apostle Reed Smoot has read the writing on the writing on the wall. The representative of the hierarchy has lost confidence. He will make a defense, but he realizes that his Senatorial career will soon end. In plain English, the case made out by the protestants is here regarded an unusually black one.

Next Sunday evening the chief counsel for Smoot, A. S. Worthington, will leave Washington for Salt Lake. His arrival there will be followed by a proonged conference with the hierarchy.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections has been given a partial list of the witnesses desired by the defense. Others will follow after the conference in Salt Lake. It might be well for Utahns to take notice of results after the subpoense are issued and are in the marshal's hands and make a comparison with those issued for the protestants. No spotters will trail the marshal and his deputies. The temple will not be guarded. The books desired will be produced. There will be no hegira to Mexico, nor Canada, nor Alaska of apostles, polygamists or plural wives, and there will be no trouble in finding the witnesses. The reason is obvious.

Smoot No Longer Joking.

The Washington Times this evening

"It has been a matter of comment recently among persons who have been giving attention to the Smoot hearings that the Senator does not bear himself as confidently as he did last spring. In the past week, since the evidence given by Apostles Penrose and John Henry Smith, and by Mormons of lesser importance, and by Democratic State Chairman Jackson of Idaho, the Sena-Instead of treating all the evidence as a huge joke, as he did at first, his countenance has indicated signs of worry. and he has made much more frequent suggestions to his attorneys in the course of the cross-examination of various witnesses. While maintaining his decision not to make any statement of his defense in the investigation, the Senator said today:

"'Why don't the committee send out to Idaho and investigate the charges of a woman there that I am a polygamist? She sent a protest to the committee three months ago, and I would like to see it investigated. Why don't the committee look into such things as

Strong Point Against Apostle.

"The sharp questioning of Attorney Tayler of the last batch of Mormon witnesses is believed to have had its effect on members of the committee. One feature which has been discussed outside the committee room as having surely injured his chances of reclaiming his seat, is his presence last July at the meeting of the apostles, which elected Editor Penrose, a known polygamist, as one of the quorum of apostles.

"Smoot's attorney admitted his presence there and the apostles called to the stand testified that no one had objected to the choice of a polygamist. The comment is heard that if Smoot had wished to show his disapproval of actions in defiance of the law of the land, he might have made a good stroke by registering his objections at that time. His failure to do so is regarded as strong substantiation of the main contention of the protestants, that he regards his duty to the Mormon church as of closer interest than his duty to the National Government under his oath as Senator." Apostle Smoot left for his home tonight to spend the holidays. Congressman Howell accompanied him.
